SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 8

Alive After Burial.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 7.—The following extraordinary story is published here from Franklin, over the signature of Mr. J. W. Weaver, of that town. He says: My wife, Martha Smith, of Chatham, reports a remarkable case of suspended animation, burial and resurrection in the person of a married lady in that county, who possessed a gold watch and finger rings which she often expressed a desire to have buried with her whenever she should die. Finally she was taken ill and her life seemed to gradually ebb away until her attending physician pronounced her dead. At her burial her previously expressed desire was complied with, and the second night after the interment a white man and a negro went to the grave and exhumed her for the purpose of obtaining the buried jewelry. As they took the lid off the coffin and the negro raised up, at the balance of the night and ran away. Finally the negro went back and asked him what he wanted. He told him he wanted her rings and the white man her watch. She requested to see the white man, when the other soon found and brought to her. She requested him to go home with her. He did so, and when she reached the house she knelt. Her husband opened the door, but failed to see her. He saw her, thinking it was his dead wife's ghost. Mrs. Smith says the lady is now living and has far to sustain a good old age, and that she visits and is visited by her frequently.
